

Herald Photo/Bonnie Ellis

Utahns step back into the days of pioneers

Trudy Summison, cards and spins wool the way their foremothers did, at the Living Pioneer Village exhibits presented by the Sons and Daughters of the Utah Pioneers, today at 500 W. and 500 N. while LeAnn Youngblood churns butter seven years. Bloch is the target of an identify the compromised security which has occurred and the reports. President Bush, on his serving in Vienna under two political appointees.

Gunman kills driver, passenger then wounds third before fleeing

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — A man with a semiautomatic handgun opened fire at a bus at a busy downtown stop, killing the driver and a rider, then fled, critically wounding a motorist and taking his car.

"The guy just raised his arm and pow, pow, pow!" said Deputy Sheriff Oppy, who was sitting in the rear of the bus when the shooting occurred Sunday afternoon.

Police were searching for the gunman and his getaway car Sunday. They said there was no apparent motive for the shootings.

"There is nothing to indicate the gunman was waiting for somebody. I have no reason to believe he knew his intended victims," said Hollywood Police Sgt. Darron Castiglione.

"He's killed two people and critically wounded one for no apparent reason."

Witnesses said the unidentified gunman had been drinking wine on a bus stop bench in front of a busy supermarket in Hollywood, a suburb north of Miami.

After the county bus pulled up and other passengers got on, the gunman opened fire at the driver and then sprayed the bus, police and witnesses said.

"The door opened. He stood up, reached under his shirt and pulled out a gun," said Oppy, 28. "The driver looked at him and he shot him three times in the head. He didn't say a word. People were screaming and jumping on the floor. I kept saying, 'Get down!'"

AP Laserphoto

A sheriff's officer consoles Amy Granger, the sister of a bus driver killed in Miami Sunday.

Sydney Granger, 43, a driver for the Broward County Transit Authority, was pronounced dead at the scene. An immigrant from Grenada with several children, he was making his last round and had about 30 minutes left on his shift at the time of the attack.

A passenger apparently killed by bullets fired through the window had not been identified by early today.

Suspect in six shootings caught at hospital ER

LAWTON, Okla. (AP) — A man wanted in a fatal shooting in an Oklahoma flower shop and suspected in five more killings in three other states was arrested at a hospital emergency room.

Police on Sunday afternoon arrested Michael Frank Greene, 37, at Comanche County Memorial Hospital in Lawton, where he had gone for treatment of an undisclosed back injury.

Two hours earlier, District Attorney Fred Collins said one count of first-degree murder, two counts of shooting with intent to kill and two counts of robbery with a firearm were filed against Greene in connection with the shootings of three women in a flower shop in Ardmore, about 100 miles southeast of Lawton.

Greene also is a suspect in the killing of a photo processing shop owner in Pampa, Texas, and the killings of two convenience store clerks in Garden City, Kan., said Carter County District Attorney Gary Henry.

"There is physical evidence linking all of the murders," said police Capt. Ron Rardin of Garden City. "I can't say much more than that, but the evidence points that way."

JAPAN:

(Continued from Page A1)

on leaders to form a coalition other issues such as defense policy, relations with the United ties. Differences between bills passed by the two houses must would threaten the governing party's 34-year hold on power